Consolidated Pineapple from the circle than the Finn's best left-hand effort.
This put shoved Rose back into third place, but Ralph smiled joyfully and patted McDonald on the back.
Nicklander sat on the bench discon-solate and shook his blonde head, his heart was almost broken.
Rose came up sluggishly for his last put, but once in the circle Ralph became the old Rose. He stood for a few seconds and looked at the two flags that were further away from the line than his green one. "Huh," grunted Ralph, as he picked up the sixteen-pound ball as easily as an ar-dinary man would seize a baseball, replayed with the weight for a few seconds, bouncing it off his hand, and picking the dirt off his hard surface.
Then he settled back into position and quickly shot the weight away.
In this put Rose got in his old glide across the circle, together with his tremendous drive at the finish. A great yell from Section P greeted the fall of the shot. It had sailed high and far, clearing the flags of both Nick-lander and McDonald. Big Pat russian and congratulated Ralph, and the two left the field to the tune of the American cheer as happy as a pair of schoolboys on the last day of June.
The final score for both hands was Rose, 27.70; McDonald, 27.53; Nick-lander, 27.18.

clothes are made on "world styles;" there's no locality about them; you can wear them anywhere in the world where men dress well, and be sure you are correctly dressed.

And the style stays stylish;
all-wool fabrics, perfectly shrunk; perfectly tailored;
that's what keeps shape in clothes.

Incidentally the same hull and en-

LAFOLLETTE'S NEW PLAN

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 5.— Senator La Follette today proposed in a resolution a radical change in the method of amending the constitution of the United States. By its terms a majority of the two houses of congress would have authority to propose a constitutional amendment, or it might be proposed on the petition of ten states acting through their legislatures or through popular vote. At present the ratification of an amendment is required by three-fourths of the states, acting through their legislatures.

Two golfing evenendar for Sunday, but that neither will inter-other to any marked exlewa a bogey handicap tested, for a trophy pub-hotel management, while intry Club course a medal ning the entry list to any degree. Haleiwa will get a delegation of golfers from Barracks, practically every swinger in the post having the invitation to come down the sporty seaside course. Then will be the usual Haleiwa of deputies must be assembled, trained and paid at higher rates than would be necessary for private persons doing the same work. So that while the betterment sought is achieved, it costs society heavily in additional taxes.
This is not to argue that betterment work should cease, or to predict that in time the excessive pecuniary cost of highly differentiated and specialized government by employes ever demanding more pay and shorter hours will create a reaction.
It is only to remark that it is just true in a twentieth century democracy as it was in the days of Moseor Lycurgus, that everything, even good government and social welfare, has its price and has to be paid for.
